Content:

OMEGA is a business led solution and action oriented coalition of interests, dedicated to finding, growing, and implementing high impact strategies and approaches to create a movement of change in employing skilled immigrants in New Zealand. Justin Treagus will speak on the impact our diminishing workforce will have on our future workforce and the challenges that lie ahead for local business. He will also share why leading businesses have got behind OMEGA, the work they are doing, as well what individuals and businesses can and should be doing to future proof ourselves from the global talent shortage.
